The murder mystery that's been "slaying" audiences for 50 years returns!

AGATHA CHRISTIE'S "THE MOUSETRAP"

Directed by Scott Dittman

BACK BY OVERWHELMING DEMAND! Agatha Christie's masterful mystery THE MOUSETRAP returns to the Knightsbridge Theatre Pasadena for a limited engagement only!

Mollie and Giles Ralston have just started their own bed and breakfast in Big Bear, CA. The guest list for Knightsbridge Manor's opening day includes the distinguished Major Metcalf, prim and proper Mrs. Boyle, the energetic Christopher Wren, the seductive Miss Casewell, and the mysterious Mr. Paravicini. The stay at the Manor is pleasant, until Sergeant Trotter of the LAPD shows up -- and reveals that someone at the Manor is a murderer, and is set to kill again.

This year marks the 50th anniversary of Agatha Christie's classic thriller THE MOUSETRAP – the longest running play in theatre history. For half a century, this show has set the standard for the murder mystery genre. THE MOUSETRAP is the definitive Agatha Christie murder mystery, and it is still as entertaining as it was on its opening night in 1952. DON'T MISS IT!
